ORAL ORDER
(Passed on 17th April, 2006)

The complaint in this writ petition is that though Crime No. 185/2004 under Sections 120-B, 419, 420, 467, 468, 471, 466 and 474 of I.P.C. was registered on 15-09-2005 against the accused persons, the investigation is not completed and charge-sheet is not filed. Learned Govt. Advocate who took the notice on behalf of the respondents – State submitted to the Court that the jurisdictional Police have been investigating into the alleged crime and they have referred certain documents, in the course of the investigation, to the handwriting expert and the results are awaited. Therefore, it cannot be said that the jurisdictional Police are sleeping over the matter and they have not taken appropriate steps for investigating into the crime. There is no need for this Court, at this stage, to monitor the investigation into the crime. In that view of the matter, the writ petition is dismissed. No costs.
